- Last/family name: Jain
- First/given name: Mahaan
- Date of birth: August 29, 2000

Please notify the Office of the Registrar if any of this information is not correct.

ACCEPT YOUR ADMISSION OFFER

In order to confirm your intention to attend, you must go online to accept your admission offer and pay a non-refundable $500 tuition deposit by the deadline indicated in Bear Tracks. This will also allow you to register in courses, once course registration opens.

(Note: Some students are exempt from having to pay the tuition deposit. Learn more at <http://admissions.ualberta.ca/exemptions>)

How to accept your offer

Log in to Bear Tracks using the CCID and password you were provided with when you applied. Click on "Accept Offer" next to the program of your choice, then complete the online payment.

<https://beartracks.ualberta.ca>

Start today

We encourage you to accept your admission offer as soon as possible. If you are later offered admission to another program for the same term, you can switch your program choice without having to pay the deposit again. Plus, the sooner you accept, the sooner you can become eligible to register in courses!

Tuition estimate

The following amount is an estimate for your first year, based on current tuition fees for international students at the University of Alberta and assuming a full course load for both fall and winter terms. This amount is subject to change every year, and does not include the cost of books, supplies, or living expenses. Please note that this figure is in Canadian (CAD) dollars:

$22,000.00 CAD for first year

For more information, please check your Fee Assessment in Bear Tracks.

If you require a verification-of-cost letter for your visa application, please contact International Student Services.

START IN RESIDENCE

Haven't applied for residence yet? On-campus accommodations may still be available. Apply now at <http://residence.ualberta.ca>. You will then receive information about available on-campus housing options.

SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

The University of Alberta offers more than $28 million in undergraduate awards each year. Learn more and apply online at <http://ualberta.ca/awards>. If you are selected to receive an award, you will be notified via your Ualberta email.

NEXT STEPSSubmit outstanding documents

Check your To Do List in Bear Tracks to find out which outstanding documents you still need to submit, and when they are due.

Get your study permit

As an international student, you are required to have a valid study permit for post-secondary studies in Canada. In order to obtain your study permit you must submit this letter to Citizenship and Immigration Canada. Learn more at <http://www.cic.gc.ca>

For help with your study/visa application visit: <http://iss.ualberta.ca/immigration>

The University of Alberta's Designated Learning Institution number is O19257171832. You will require this number for your study permit application. (Note: The first character in the DLI number is the letter O, not the number zero.)

Register in courses

After you have accepted your offer and paid your deposit (if applicable), you will be eligible to register in courses in Bear Tracks. You will receive an email notification when course registration opens; in the meantime, you can build a draft schedule in Bear Tracks.

PREPARING FOR UNIVERSITY

As an international student, there are many things you need to do to prepare for your arrival to the U of A. Please see the International Student Services website for more information and resources:

<http://ualberta.ca/international-student-services/prepare-for-ualberta/preparation-bulletin>

OTHER IMPORTANT NOTES

Transfer Credit

If you have completed Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB), or GCE (A-level) courses and have submitted your transcripts, you may be eligible for transfer credits towards your degree program. Check Bear Tracks to see your Transfer Credit Report. If you wish to decline transfer credit, please fill out the Transfer Credit Decline Form at <https://www.ualberta.ca/admissions/undergraduate/resources/forms>
